

Spanish Nights in Coral Gables

The pulse of castanets, stomping heels and rhythmic guitars sounded through the hall as dancers twirled, matadors flirted and señoritas flashed their smiles, all to welcome Palace residents to a festive “Spanish Nights” celebration.

The famous foods and wines of Spain prepared us for an exciting flamenco dance on stage, and The Palace staff once again proved they can take us anywhere in the world without ever leaving home.